

Aperitivo - 16

Angelo Azzurro

Blue Combier + Bombay Sapphire

The Amalfi Coast's blue waters are breathtaking – the Angelo Azzurro allows you to envision these blue waters.

Aperol Spritz

Aperol + Scarpetta Prosecco + Soda

Think of sitting at an Italian cafe, sipping on an Aperitif – it is likely the Aperol Spritz – Chef's favorite.

Rossini

Strawberry Puree + Scarpetta Prosecco

Created in Venice, this is a spin on the more ancient Bellini – enjoy our spin on the cocktail.

The Puzo

Monkey Shoulder Whiskey + Luxardo Ammaretto

At Tom's first law firm, he met "The Godfather." This meeting was enough for us to rename our Godfather cocktail.

Negroni

Campari + Engine Gin + Dolin Rouge

Certainly not the oldest, but perhaps the best-known Italian aperitif. The story of the Negroni begins in Florence and it is believed that Count Camillo Negroni invented this cocktail when he added Gin in place of soda when ordering an Americano. Count this cocktail as a must try!
